Song, The Daffodils Hall Chorus

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills.

When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host of golden daffodils;

Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,

They stretched in never ending line
Along the margin of the bay.

Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced; but they

Outdid the sparkling waves in glee;

A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company;

I gazed,—and gazed,—but little thought

What wealth the show to me had brought.

For oft, when on my couch I lie

In vacant or in pensive mood,

They flash upon that inward eye

Which is the bliss of solitude.

And then my heart with pleasure fills,

And dances with the daffodils.

Song, Serenade Schubert Selected Voices

Through the leaves the night winds moving.

Murmur low and sweet,

To my chamber window roving,

Love hath led my feet,

Silvery prayers of blissful feeling,

Lies us, though apart,

On the breath of music stealing

To the dreaming heart.

Moonlight on the earth is sleeping,

Winds are rustling low,

Where the darkling streams are creeping.

Dearest, let us go

All the stars keep watch in heaven,

White I sing to thee,

And the night for love is given.

Dearest, come to me.

Sadly in the forest mourning,

Wails the whippoorwill,

And the heart for thee is yearning,

Silence, love be still.

Recitation, The Sun and the Brook, Greta Cadby

Recitation, Joan of Arc, De Quincy Ruth Kendall Choate

Song, Robin's Come, Hyatt Chorus

From the elm tree's topmost bough,

Hark! the robin's early song!

Telling one and all that now

Merry Springtime hastens along,

Welcome tidings dost thou bring,

Little harbinger of spring:

Robin's come.

Of the winter we are weary,

Weary of the frost and snow;

Longing for the sunshiny cheery,

And the brooklet's gurgling flow.

Gladly then we hear the song

Robin's come.

Recitation, Joan of Arc, De Quincy Ruth Kendall Choate

Class Song: "I

The years that now are gliding

Are far too soon away,

Within our hearts are hiding

Yon mem'ry day by day,

And while our pines are reaping

Our bookish things a store,

Within our hearts we're keeping

The gems we cherish more.

The brightest years are passing,

The shortest of our life.

The years so free from sadness,

The years with pleasure ripe,

When forth from here we wander,

With life's work to be done;

As fondly shall we cherish

The friendships here begun.

WOONSOCKET, June 19.—Carmel Crescent, 19, shot and killed "Big John" LaRue, aged 32, at a dance last night in Sycamore street because the latter, it was claimed, insulted him.

Crescent, who lives in Melville, Mass., found were neutrally the same as and is a laborer by trade, yesterday, the car being car and seal and was said to have been drinking.

A woman who saw the shooting said the latter, a former state champion, was allowed to walk away and went up Arnold and Mountain streets, followed by a crowd of boys. He then went down Aspinwall street to Main street and tried to hide in a yard, then down Main street to the rear of the Hotel building, where he was captured. Crescent freely admitted the fight began with a quarrel.

BOARD OF HEALTH

HOW TYPHOID FEVER IS SPREAD BY DRINKING CANAL WATER IN THE MILLS.

Says Canal Water is Menace to Public Health

Believing that canal water is a menace to public health the board of health at a meeting held yesterday afternoon voted to ask the cooperation of the Lowell mill agents in preventing the drinking by mill operatives of canal water. The following letter signed by the board, Dr. Simpson and Agent Bates, has been sent to the mill agents:

Dear Sir:

It has repeatedly come to the notice of the board of health when in investigating cases of typhoid fever

among mill operatives that there are two sources of water supply in many of the mills.

One of these, the city water, sometimes furnished to the various rooms in buckets, sometimes by fators, is intended for drinking. The other, an independent supply, we understand comes from the canals or river and is intended only for washing purposes.

We believe that the latter is frequently the cause of trouble, not only from typhoid fever, but various other tertian disturbances. With the end in view of limiting the amount of sickness in our city by removing as far as possible all disease-producing agencies, we would like to have it so arranged that the second source of water supply cannot be used by operatives for drinking purposes.

We send this letter to you with the request that you will kindly communicate with this board at your earliest convenience and let us know to what extent you are willing to co-operate with us in this matter. We shall also be glad to have your personal views upon the question.

As bearing upon this question it may be of interest to you to know that a recent quite severe epidemic of typhoid in Manchester, N. H., was promptly checked by shutting off the canal water entirely.

A hearing was granted before the Board of Health on the petition for a bill to prohibit the use of canal water in Lowell, and is pending in the Legislature.

John Evans was given an opportunity to make alterations in his bill.

There were complaints relative to impurities in lakeview water at the time of the bill.

The complaints were not met.

After investigation of Agent Bates, the board voted to postpone its action.

John Evans was given an opportunity to make alterations in his bill.

John Evans suggested that one of the impurities be dropped temporarily.

He advised the board to make no changes in the bill.

The present legislation, he said,

at the present rate of expenditure, at the rate of the present appropriation, when we apply that to an extra amount, the committee being of the opinion that the bill is not after which the voter is not obliged to pay for automobiles for the fire department," said Dr. Martin.

The board agreed to drop an exception before September, if at all.

business, call on me. "Woolf" column.

Reception and Ball of Mayor Brown Will Not Decide Today

The concert, reception and ball of the graduating class of the Howe high school was held last night in the town hall. There were about 500 present, and the untiring work of the members of the class to make the affair a success which it was, were amply rewarded by the large attendance.

Between 8 and 9 o'clock a concert program was given by Hubbard's orchestra, during which time the graduates held a reception.

The grand march was led by Earl W. Costello and Miss Elsie A. Casey, president and vice-president of the class, followed by Lt. Harold W. Robie of the Mitchell Boys' school and Miss Edna Robinson. There were about 50 couples in line and several pretty figures were executed by the marchers. Dancing continued until nearly midnight. Those in charge of the event and the members of the graduating class as follows: President, Earl W. Costello; vice-president, Elsie A. Casey; secretary, Edna M. Robinson; treasurer, Gladys M. Holden; Myrtle R. King, Lillian Balmforth, Addie E. Shear, Stella Morris and Thomas H. Estes.

A very pretty dancing party was held in Thomas Tabot Memorial hall last night under the auspices of the Glendale campers. Music for dancing was furnished by the Rosedale orchestra. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of the following: General manager, Martin H. Maguire; assistant, Walter H. Flaherty; floor director, Win. J. Morris; assistant, Frank W. Leighton; alds., John A. Ryan, Frank McCullin, George F. Smith, Michael Matoney, William Cahill, Charles Moore; treasurer, Fred M. Flaherty.

SURVIVORS OF KEARSARGE

WALTHAM, June 19.—The remaining survivors of the crew which manned the battleship Kearsarge, which vanquished the confederate ship Alabama off the coast of France on June 19, 1861, gathered in this city today to celebrate the 45th anniversary of that history making encounter. Of the men who comprised the crew of the Kearsarge there are now 30 living members. The veterans assembled here from many parts of the country accompanied by their wives and children,

TWO NEW STEAMSHIPS

RANGOR, Me., June 19.—The latest of the large water transportation companies to abandon the use of the sailing vessel in preference to the steamship as a means of conveyance is the Coastwise Transportation company and to that end the company has contracted for the construction of two $100 ton steamships, each to cost about $500,000. According to the latest statistics forty-seven sailing vessels have disappeared from the Atlantic coastwise fleet during the past year.

The coastwise company operates what is known as the Crowley fleet of sailing vessels, many of the craft bearing that name. The new steamships will be used in the coal carrying trade between Philadelphia and New England ports and will be ready in about a year.

In order to discharge the coal from the new and larger ships the Boston & Maine railroad will expend about $100,000 for new machinery.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

The following marriage intentions were registered at the city clerk's office since the last were published:

Wm. E. Moses, 21, brazier, 382 Lincoln street, and Edith L. Goss, 18, at home, 16 Boston road.

Edward Couto, 32, clerk, 302 Merrimack street, and Henrietta Gonn (widowed), 21, operative, 100 West Sixth street.

John J. Doolin, 29, operative, 69 Tyler street, and Helen O'Gorman, 19, operative, 23 Lawrence street.

Jeremiah Sullivan, 23, laborer, 93 E. Merrimack street, and Nora McDonnell, 23, housewife, same address.

Harry D. Havantian, 21, shoemaker, Haverhill, Mass., and Adelina Ghavahanian, 23, none, 257 Central street.

Joseph L. Bourque, 20, carpenter, Somerville, Mass., and Agnes L. Dupres, 20, dressmaker, 102 Adams street.

GIRL MURDERED

Her Body Was Found Tied up in a Trunk

NEW YORK, June 18.—Packed in a steamer trunk, tied with ropes and left in a stuffy little room in a house occupied principally by Chinese, the body of a young woman was discovered last night. All indications are that she was murdered by strangulation.

While the body had not been identified until last night, the police say they have reason to believe that it may prove to be that of a young woman missionary.

The number, including itself on the recent finding of the dismembered body of a man on the East Side, gives the New York police two solved mysteries to work upon. The efforts of the police are being centered in an attempt to establish the identity of the young woman. In their investigations they found Henry G. Elberfeld, who is interested in Americans in the Chinese, and who gave the police a valuable clue in which he described a Chinaman who had formerly occupied the room where the body was found.

Elberfeld said his cousin came from Philadelphia about five months ago.

Long said he saw his cousin, Elberfeld and her father and mother at a performance at the Chinese theatre three weeks ago.

Mrs. Paul Sigel, at 1:30 o'clock, this morning when shown the jewelry found in the trunk containing the body of the murdered girl in a Chinese rooming house in Eighth avenue, identified it as that worn by her daughter, Euse.

A woman settlement worker in the immigrant tent identified the undershirt worn by the girl.

Late last night three Chinamen were arrested as material witnesses. They gave the names of Yee Kim, manager of Sun Leong's restaurant; Gung Wing, salesman for a Chen Suyi supply house; and Chin Sian, a cook, who lived in the same restaurant.

The man most wanted however, is the former occupant of the room where the body was found, evidently an English-speaking celestial, who either knew Elsie Sigel or knew some one who knew her. And judging from the letters this individual is Leong Loon, known among his English friends as William H. Loon.

Shortly after midnight Mrs. Florence M. Telis, one of the resident workers in the Chinatown and Bowery settlement, who is a friend of the Sigel family, called at the morgue and after viewing the body, identified some of the under clothing as that worn by Elsie Sigel.

The body was covered with blood and the clothing was torn, indicating they had been strangled. The man who occupied the room had evidently in his haste to save his life, no effort to remove anything. He was evidently a convert to Christianity, for there were about the room Bibles and prayer books, containing names written in both English and Chinese, which gave the information that the former occupant was known in English as William H. Loon, and in Chinese as Wong Lin.

Strangled on a card in fairly good English was an unsigned note which read "I hope you do not get mad at me because all the trouble comes from me. I hope some day the happiness comes to us both."

There was great excitement among Chinese in the vicinity when the murderer was discovered, but with the exception of the proprietor, they could not be induced to view the body. Examination showed that it had been strangled in a blue blanket. The outer clothing was removed. The feet were bare. Drawing the trunk apart a ball, therefore, became a more minute inspection. Discrepancy had progressed so far, however, that except for the whiteness of the feet, it would have been difficult to ascertain whether it was the body of a white woman. Soon after Mr. Sigel had been notified, it was removed to the morgue.

Turning their attention again to the room, the officers found a hatchet cleaver, which gave further color to the murder theory, as borne out by the bloody corpse.

The house, where the trunk was found, is a three-story structure, used mainly as a cheap stay restaurant. The upper floors are rented to Chinese.

Paul Sigel late last night went to the Eighth avenue house and examined the clothing of the murdered woman, who was, however, unable to identify any of the tilings as having belonged to his missing daughter, Euse. He suggested that the police search the trunks of his wife, who lives in the Bronx, for identification. According to Paul Sigel, his daughter disappeared from home on June 16th. Two days later, the family received word from her in Washington, saying she was safe and would be home the following Monday (June 17). Nothing, the father said, had been heard from her since. He gave her age as 20.

The letter was sent to the mother of the missing girl for examination. The father left the scene of the murder soon after making his statement to the police.

A number of letters, which the police expect will throw light on the case, were found in the room where the body was discovered, one written in English addressed to the 75th Street

Post Office, New York.

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Lowell.

Most Lowell people work every day in some strained unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hurried and匆忙 way. All these strains tend to wear weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Lowell cures it.

Peter Carpenter, living at 7 Rockdale Avenue, Lowell, Mass., says: "My work necessitates a great deal of heavy lifting and this together with a fall I received a short time ago affected my kidneys. My back became very lame and ached for days at a time. I used everything I thought might bring me relief, but to no avail. As my kidneys were not doing their work in a proper manner I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and purchased a box from Ellingsworth & Co.'s drug store. They soon banished the backache and I have had no trouble from that source since. My kidneys have also been greatly strengthened and I feel better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Matson Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

If you know the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kind of kidney pills when you buy them.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was 15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

DRINKING CANAL WATER.

We had supposed that the mill operatives long ago had learned the danger of drinking canal water. It should not be available for drinking purposes in the mills; but to prevent its use there should always be a supply of city water within easy reach of the operatives. It is undoubtedly charged with typhoid germs.

THE WRIGHT BROTHERS.

The Wright Brothers, American inventors of aeroplanes, are at last receiving tokens of real appreciation from their countrymen. If they were assisted by the government in developing their inventions as was Count Zeppelin, the German inventor, they could undoubtedly attain much greater success.

BUNKER HILL DAY ACCIDENTS.

It is reported that one hundred people were injured in Boston during the celebration of Bunker Hill day, mostly by powder explosions. That is an extraordinary number for the 17th of June which is not supposed to be a circumstance to the Fourth of July. We had supposed that the people were adopting a more sane method of celebrating all such holidays, but it would appear that if the people of Boston were less noisy than usual they were equally as successful in piling up the number of accidents.

PROFESSION OF ANARCHY A FELONY.

The state of Washington has adopted a criminal code, making the profession of anarchism a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any period not exceeding ten years.

Anarchism is defined as a doctrine that organized government should be overthrown by force of violence or the assassination of the executive head or any of the executive officials of government or by any unlawful means. The organs that have been advocating this doctrine will have to cease doing business in the state of Washington if they wish to avoid imprisonment. This puts the state in the right attitude towards anarchism. Treason is punishable by death, but it is not a whit worse than anarchism. We have had an influx of anarchists from other lands and there are various states in which they are numerically strong, New Jersey being among the number.

This new law adopted by the state of Washington, or one somewhat similar, should be in force in every state of this republic in order to prevent the influx of these dangerous characters who are opposed to all forms of organized government and plot in secret to carry out their nefarious ends.

So many rulers have been assassinated by anarchists that it is but right that every government should fortify itself against their conspiracies.

ANTI-CIGARETTE PLEDGE.

Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan set a good example last week when he had 165 boys take the pledge against the use of cigarettes. That is the best way to suppress the cigarette habit. These boys who have taken the pledge will act as missionaries among their companions in putting down the use of cigarettes. They will be instructed in the danger of using cigarettes, the injurious effects upon body and mind and they will convey to their young friends this instruction. In that way a great deal of good will be done among the rising generation. We hope the good example set by Rev. Fr. Sullivan will spread and that there will be a great anti-cigarette army throughout the country. It would mean a great deal to the next generation.

Rear Admiral Schroeder has done a wise thing in recommending that the use of cigarettes be forbidden in the navy. Secretary Meyer has the matter under consideration and will probably report favorably upon the recommendation. The use of tobacco in other forms is not forbidden, it is only the cigarette that is tabooed. It has been customary to keep cigarettes for sale at the stores on board the naval vessels. By offering them for sale the naval authorities thus encouraged the use of cigarettes and are indirectly responsible for the evil consequences to the sailors. At this time they dropped the practice.

THE LITTLETON AUTO ACCIDENT.

That was a deplorable accident in which Joseph B. Breed of Lynn was killed by an accident to his automobile in Littleton, Mass. He was riding in a powerful machine and going at the rate of sixty miles an hour on a country road. It is plain to everybody while an automobile is going at such high speed that the least turn of the steering wheel to one side or the other may cause the machine to run off the road or else crash into some obstruction. The best drivers occasionally may have moments of absent-mindedness in which the slightest slip may result in a fatal accident. It is utter foolishness for any man to risk his life in an automobile going at the rate of sixty miles an hour. No matter how experienced the driver may be, the occupants of the machine are not sure of their lives for a minute. If a machine were running upon steel rails, like an express train, there would even then be considerable risk at that high rate of speed, but upon a country road with turns and bends and inequalities of every description, it is madness to run a machine at the rate of sixty miles an hour.

The speed limit set by law seems to be ignored by the drivers, as they strike the country roads. That explains why there are so many bad accidents, and it may explain perhaps why Mr. Breed is dead today and his wife seriously injured. Only sympathy can be felt for the victims of the accident, but in spite of this it must be admitted that they, themselves, were to blame for allowing their machine to be run at such a high rate of speed.

SEEN AND HEARD

Here's one on a travelling man (commercial traveler) living in Lowell. He was in a New Hampshire town and home was his destination. The train that was to bring him here was caught just as it was pulling out of the depot. He arrived just in time to grab the tail end of the last car. It was a Pullman and when he entered the Pullman conductor asked him for his ticket. He said he didn't have any Pullman ticket, but he was riding on a mileage.

"I was a bit tardy and came near missing the train," said the Lowell man.

"Funny that you should be nearly said the conductor. "This train is two hours late."

THE SIGNAL

I do not care to signal Mars. I have no wish to know.

What men are doing on the stars

That wonder faintly glow;

Across the court room where I sit

There is a lady fair.

Whose fingers over the keyboard sit,

And I would signal there.

Let others send their signals out

Across the gulf of space;

I only watch her kiss about,

A smile on her face;

The court between us must be

Full eighty feet across,

And always near her side I see

Her ever watchful kiss.

I do not care at all to know

How men on Mars may dwell,

But, oh, I wish that I might see

A signal she could speak,

A signal that she might get

To see and understand—

Stay! Am I dreaming? I am not!

She has just waved her hand.

man who used to live in this city and who regarded his time as valuable, devised an effective plan for handling obstreperous and persistent conversationalists. He had on his desk a small alarm clock. When a visitor of impudent propensities was announced this man would pick up his clock, set the alarm three or four minutes ahead and receive his caller. Time went by and then the clock did its duty. The busy man started as he heard the sound, consulted his watch and then rose with a hasty apology. "I'm mighty sorry we won't be able to discuss that subject longer," he would say to the caller, "but I have an important engagement at this hour and must keep it."

A Lowell man is telling a good story about his three-year-old daughter. "I have no wish to know." "You know that seasonal disease, Chop sticks, of course," said he. "Well, my wife was playing it the other day and my little girl was upstairs intensely, she had heard the noise before, but soon after her mother stopped playing the little one asked with childlike simplicity: "Mamma, won't you play that Lamb Chop again?"

PEOPLE OF NOTE

John Edward Chilberg, president of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, is credited with a wider acquaintance upon the Pacific coast from Cape Barrow in the Arctic to Valparaiso, Chile, than any other man. His activities have carried him into most of the mining camps of Alaska, all the principal cities of the Pacific coast, state and Mexico, the Central American republics and South America. It was his intimate familiarity with the people of the Pacific coast, as well as his achievements in business and in the developments of the northwest, that placed him at the head of the Seattle exposition, which represents an expenditure of ten million dollars and is now running full blast says Hampton's Magazine.

The Seattle fire of 1889 wiped out a shipping business which young Chilberg had taken over from his father and left him several thousand dollars in debt. He went to work harder than ever, this time in trade between Puget Sound and Central and South America. In this business he laid the foundation for a comfortable fortune. When gold was discovered in Alaska Mr. Chilberg disposed of his South American interests and joined the argonauts. He established a line of freight boats on the Yukon river, in Seattle, when the Nome excitement broke forth, organized the first stampede into the new camp. He took twenty-five hundred men down the Yukon to the shores of Bering sea in flat-bottomed river boats. Later in Seattle, he became associated with the Scandinavian-American bank, and with associates erected the Alaska building, the tallest structure in the northwest (fifteen stories), the New Washington hotel of fourteen stories and several other notable Seattle buildings.

For two years Mr. Chilberg has devoted almost all of his time to the exposition, without remuneration, and has been the moving spirit behind the development of the enterprise. Among other enterprises organized by Mr. Chilberg are a life insurance company and a fire and marine insurance concern; he built light and power plants at Fairbanks, Alaska, and at other points, and he has acquired heavy mining interests in the north. He is forty-three years old and is a native of Iowa.

Dr. William Geil of Doylestown, Pa., has recently arrived in London after an expedition in China in the course of which he traced the great wall for 1400 miles from the east coast of Shantung to Kliaukien, on the northern border of Tibet. He was amazed to find indications that the restoration of China is spreading to the remotest parts of that country, especially in military training.

The acceptance by the Yale corporation of a gift of $5000 from Mrs. J. W. Dunn, of Philadelphia, to be used for a gateway at the west of Pier Hall in memory of her son, Harry George, the early demolition of Alumna Hall.

The gateway will be a structure with undoubted beauty, a dormitory for the Alumnae, a dormitory to lodge 227 students, and there is no other site for an additional dormitory on either campus.

That the $250,000 given to the Johns Hopkins university by the Rockefeller general board of education in New York is the beginning of definite steps toward making the university to Homewood, and is to be the nucleus of a fund of $1,000,000 to be raised as a condition of the gift, is the statement made by R. Brent Keyser, president of the board of trustees of the institution.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Shoe Manufacturers Submit Plan to Lynn Labor Unions

LYNN, June 19.—The shoe manufacturers of Lynn today submitted to the labor unions a revised plan in connection with the movement to bring about industrial peace in the city. The modified outline follows closely the original craft submitted by the unions in March, the changes being made to meet suggestions made by six of the unions. The other labor organizations numbering 25 and 30 already have accepted the proposition which provides for the formation of the grand lodge to be composed of subordinate lodges made up of the manufacturers and the different crafts in the shoe industry. The lodges are to supplement the labor unions and are to bring their difficulties to the grand lodge for discussion and solution. The revised plan will now be considered by the various unions. It is estimated that this proceeding will require about a month.

THE DAVIS MATCH SUPERIOR COURT

Will be Played in This Three Cases Defaulted on Court's Order

NEW YORK, June 19.—American lawn tennis players have secured the services of the Davis match for this country. This news reached the city today. The English team will meet the Americans early in September. The matches are two singles and three doubles, and will be decided at Philadelphia instead of Boston. From present indications the courts will be those of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, the same spot upon which the women's national championship will be decided next week.

PRES. GOMPERS
SAILED TODAY ON STEAMER
SALTIC FOR LIVERPOOL

NEW YORK, June 19.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor sailed on the steamer Baltic for Liverpool. Mr. Gompers expects to remain abroad until September attending several labor congresses and studying industrial conditions in Europe on the continent.

More than 1600 persons, personal friends and officials of labor organizations, were on board to bid Mr. Gompers good bye. He was cheered by the crowd as he bounded the steamer.

TAPPAN CO'S LIABILITIES

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 19.—The exact amount of liabilities of the Louis Tappan company, bankers and brokers, of this city, who made an assignment recently cannot be distinctly determined because of the absence of Louis Johnson, the confidential bookkeeper, and the fact are impossible according to a preliminary report made to the creditors today of John A. Thibault, the assignee.

The exact amount of assets, it is not known because of claims against Mr. Tappan by New York correspondents, all of whom are in litigation.

LATEST MARITAL TROUBLES

Were Aired in the Police Court Today

The greater part of this morning's session of the police court was devoted to the fronting out of marital difficulties. It was the case of John P. Read, charged with failing to provide proper support for his wife, Lydia.

The complainant testified that she married her husband a year ago last February and that he left her last September and since the latter time had not contributed towards her support. She said that subsequent to her husband leaving her she was taken ill and underwent an operation and for the past six months has been in poor health.

On cross examination she admitted that she had money in the bank, that she had been in the habit of drinking, but had not drunk anything for a year.

The husband said that as a result of a conversation with her last September she called him vile names and ordered him to leave her and that if he returned she would have him arrested. He claimed that he knew nothing about her being ill or that she underwent an operation at a hospital.

MATRIMONIAL

The following report of the wedding of Walter Noyes Sherwell of this city will be of interest to many Lowell people. The item is from the Biddeford, Me., Daily Journal of June 16:

The wedding of Walter Noyes Sherwell and Miss Lillian Hayes Blanchard, which took place in the First Universalist church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, was one of the city's most elaborate and fashionable, and the largest company of Biddeford's representative people who filled the large auditorium, attested the popularity of the young bride, who was born and reared in this city, and the esteem for the bridegroom, who has many warm friends.

The church was most artistically decorated with hydrangeas and potted palms. The entire altar was banked with the showy blooms, the palms serving as a most effective background. The ushers were Dr. Edward Cranigan of Tufts Dental school, Clarence A. Parker of Auburn, formerly of Lowell, Charles L. Tuttle of Portland, and Ernest T. Walker of Biddeford.

The maid of honor was Miss Nellie H. Bailey of Boston, a cousin of the bride. She was gowned in white lace over blue silk; the bride was gowned in duchess lace over white satin in train.

The service, which was performed by Rev. Herbert Frank Moulton, was strictly after the Universalist form, simple but beautifully impressive, the double ring service being used.

The bridal party after the ceremony went to the Montreal house, Old Orchard, which has been the bride's summer home for many years, and there the gifts were seen. These were both costly and beautiful, and included silver of rare design, cut glass, china, linen and many other articles of value.

Mrs. Sherwell is the only child of Mrs. and Mrs. Frank W. Blanchard of this city.

Mr. Sherwell is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sherwell of Lowell, Mass. He came to Biddeford in November, 1904, from Portland, where he was chief night operator of the telephone exchange. He served here as chief operator until September, 1908, when he went back to Portland to act as service inspector, and is now inspector of the eastern division telephone service.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwell will return to Old Orchard after their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends at the Montreal house after August 1.

LAMBERT—WHITAKER

Dr. Fred DeForest Lambert and Miss Catherine Gravath Whitaker were married yesterday afternoon in the Evangelical church in Tyngsboro, by Rev. Nicholas T. Whittaker of Lowell and Rev. Bertram C. Henry of Tyngsboro. The bride was attended by her sisters, Misses Grace and Harriet Bancroft Whitaker, and by her niece, Miss Hazel Bancroft Whitaker, as flower girl. Mr. Henry M. Saree of Lexington was best man. The ring bearers were Master John Rogers Fether and Master Frederick Flather, both of Lowell. The ushers were Dr. Walter H. Flanders of Melrose, Dr. John H. Lambert of Lowell, Mr. Charles P. Littlehale and Mr. Kirk Walker, both of Tyngsboro. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Channing Whitaker. The church was very tastefully decorated with mountain laurel, daisies, ferns and hemlocks. A reception followed immediately after the ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lambert.

CASSIDY—SHIELDS

Mr. James H. Cassidy and Miss Gertrude Shields were married Wednesday evening at St. Peter's church by Rev. Fr. Burns. Mr. John McCauley was best man, and the bridesmaid was Miss Kathryn Daly. The bride and bridegroom were becomingly gowned in white. After a somewhat extended wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy will be at home to their friends after July 1, at 27 Chapel street.

CONNORS—PAGE

Mr. Maurice Connors and Miss Delhi Page, both of this city, were married Wednesday afternoon at the parishioner church of the Immaculate Conception by the Rev. John P. Flynn, O. M. I. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk, and her sister, Miss Margaret Edith Page, who acted as bridesmaid, was charmingly gowned in pale blue. The best man was Mr. John Williams, a pupil of the school. The wedding service was held at the home of the happy couple, 12 Bedford street, where they will reside after their return from their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Connors were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

DAVIS—DONOVAN

A very pretty wedding took place in Tyngsboro on last Wednesday when Miss Mary Elizabeth Donavan and Mr. Edwin Davis were married. The

REV. JOHN J. SHAW

To be Observed at St. Michael's Tomorrow

Basement of Church Dedicated and First Services Held 25 Years Ago—Annual Exhibit by Pupils of St. Michael's School Tomorrow

With impressive religious services but without any outward ostentation, the 25th anniversary of the dedication of St. Michael's church, in Centralville, will be observed tomorrow, and an epoch in the history of one of the most flourishing parishes of its size in the archdiocese will be marked. The mass will be sung at 10:30 o'clock with Rev. Fr. Carney, celebrant, assisted by Rev. Fr. Mallin, deacon, and Rev. Fr. Murphy, sub-deacon. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Fr. Shaw, the coadjutor pastor of St. Michael's church, who will briefly review the growth and history of the parish. The choir will give special music, and it is expected that clergymen from other parishes will assist at the service.

Centralville and Dracut were made into a separate parish in the fall of 1882 and on January 1, 1884, the first mass in the new St. Michael's parish was sung in the Fourth street residence. On December 10, 1882, ground was broken by Rev. William O'Brien, the first pastor of the parish, for the new St. Michael's church, and on April 27, 1884, the corner stone was laid with imposing ceremony by the late Archbishop Williams of Boston.

The ceremonies attending the carrying out of this important event were very impressive. It was estimated at the time that not less than 15,000 persons crossed Centralville bridge for the purpose of witnessing them. The floor of the church was packed with a surging mass of people. Over the timone of the archbishop an awning was erected, while ample arrangements were made for the seating of the clergy. A 100' wooden cross marked the spot where the altar was to stand, on the left of which stood a temporary pulpit for the preacher of the day.

The archbishop and other clergymen were escorted from St. Patrick's church to the new church by a long procession composed of the various Catholic societies of the city. Mr. Michael Corbett was marshal of the day.

An eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. Jeremiah O'Connor, S. J., president of Boston college, and Rev. Mr. Tedding of Lynn spoke briefly. Rev. John J. Shaw, the present pastor, was master of ceremonies.

Of the clergymen who participated in this notable religious event the following have since passed to their reward: Archbishop Williams, Rev. Michael O'Brien, Rev. William O'Brien of Winchester, Mass., Rev. Fr. O'Connor, S. J., the preacher of the occasion; Rev. Fr. McDevitt of Chelsea, Rev. Martin O'Brien of Newton Upper Falls, Rev. Fr. Vinken of South Boston, Rev. Fr. Egan of Lawrence, Rev. Fr. Morris of Brookline, Rev. Fr. Daly of Boston, Rev. Fr. McNulty of West Newton, Rev. Fr. Joyce, O. M. I., and Rev. Fr. Terrell, O. M. I., of this city.

On June 22, 1884, the third Sunday after Pentecost, the event which is being observed tomorrow took place, namely, the dedication of the basement of the church which was used for several years before the superstructure was completed, and the celebration of the first mass in the present edifice on June 23, the following day, the altars were consecrated and on June 25, 1884, the main church was dedicated. The school conducted by the Dominican sisters was opened on Sept. 8, 1884, and will observe its 25th anniversary next September. This school is a particularly successful concern, and the institution just closed has been marked by greater success than its predecessor.

Rev. Fr. William O'Brien, the first superior, remained at St. Michael's until shortly after the dedication of the main church in 1884, when he was called to the permanent rectorate of St. Peter's church, and on Nov. 17, 1887, Rev. John J. Shaw became pastor of St. Michael's. Fr. Shaw's great success in the direction of the affairs of his church was due mainly to the efforts of Rev. James J. O'Connor, who was his predecessor.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Boston National Guard, which had claimed a debt of $1,000,000, was compelled to make a substantial reduction in its demands, however, when it was learned that the Boston city council had voted to appropriate $100,000 for the payment of the debt.

BOSTON, June 17.—The Boston city council, which had voted to appropriate $100,000 for the payment of the debt, voted to increase the amount to $200,000.

HAMMOND, June 17.—The January cruise, which knocked out Dick Fitzpatrick in the eighth round of their schoolboy fight round bout here last night, was a good one. Charlie Knocking Fitzy, after down twice in the third round, got up and did good work until the eighth. When Fitzpatrick was hit down in the eighth his seconds sent him to the sponge, after which Misses Hogan could get to visit him but

Chorus Chorus

The wind is blowing from off the shore

As our sail has felt its force;

For our bark bounds forth o'er the crested waves.

As a wild and restive horse,

Our sharp point cleaves the billows,

And they brightly gleam in the glad sunlight.

As we speed upon our way,

Lords of the waves we are.

Kings of the seething foam,

Warriors bold, from the Norsetland cold,

Far o'er the sea we roam.

We've left our wives and our sweethearts fair,

On the green encircled strand,

To entreat the gods to watch o'er our lives,

And to bring us back to land.

Each day they'll pray to heaven,

Nor will they pray in vain.

For the gods will watch o'er our sturdy bark,

As we guide her home again.

GIRL MURDERED

Her Body Was Found Tied up in a Trunk

NEW YORK, June 19.—Packed in a steamer trunk, tied with ropes and left in a study little room in a house occupied principally by Chinese, the body of a young woman was discovered last night. All indications are that she was murdered in strangulation.

While the body had not been identified late last night, the police say they have reason to believe that it may prove to be that of a young woman missing.

The man following closely on the heels of the distinguished body of a man on the East Side gives the New York police two sordid mysteries to work upon. The efforts of the police are being centered in an attempt to establish the identity of the young woman. In their investigations they found Henry H. Barnett, who is interested in Americanizing the Chinese, and who gave the police a valuable clue in which the Chinese man who had formerly occupied the room where the body was found.

While there is no direct evidence to connect this Chinaman with the murder, the fact that he was the last occupant makes him a valuable witness at least.

Paul Sigel, a son of General Frank Sigel of Civil war fame, was also summoned to headquarters, as his daughter has been missing for more than a week and the police were anxious for him to view the body. Barnett said that he knew a young white woman by sight who had been interested in work among the Chinese and he was inclined to think that the name was Sigel, although he was not sure of this. With this partly coincidental information the police began their investigations.

The house in which the body was discovered is in Eighth avenue at 258, in the Tenderloin district. Sun Lang, the proprietor, brought about the revelation of the crime. He noted a peculiar odor and fearing that some one had committed suicide notified the police. They ascended to the top floor, entered a small room and opened a steamer trunk. There lay the body, cramped and partly decomposed, with a rope wound tightly about the throat and also tied about the knees and arms.

The body was covered with blood and the clothing was torn, indicating there had been a struggle. The man who had occupied the room had evidently left hastily for there had been no effort to remove anything. He was evidently a convert to Christianity for there were about the room Bibles and prayer books containing names written in both English and Chinese, which gave the information that the former occupant was known in English as William H. Liao, and in Chinese as Liang Liao.

Scribbled on a card in fairly good English was an unsigned note which read "I hope you do not get mad at me because all the trouble comes from me. I hope some day the happiness come to us both."

There was great excitement among Chinese in the vicinity when the murder was discovered, but with the exception of the proprietor they could not be induced to view the body. Examination showed that it had been wrapped in a blue blanket. The outer clothing was removed. The feet were bare. Dragging the trunk out into a hall, inspection began a more minute inspection. Decomposition had progressed so far, however, that except for the whiteness of the feet, it would have been difficult to ascertain whether it was the body of a little woman. Soon after Mr. Sigel had been notified, it was removed to the morgue.

Turning their attention again to the room, the officers found a butcher's cleaver which gave further color to the murder theory as borne out by the bloody corpse.

The house where the trunk was found is a three-story structure used mainly as a cheap suey restaurant. The upper doors are rented to Chinamen.

Paul Sigel late last night went to the Eighth avenue house and examined the clothing the murdered woman wore. He was, however, unable to identify any of the things as having belonged to his missing daughter. He suggested that the police send the prints to his wife, who lives in the Bronx, for identification. According to Paul Sigel, his daughter disappeared from home on June 16th. Two days later the family received word from her in Washington, saying she was safe and would be home the following Monday (June 17). Noting, the father said, had been heard from her since. He gave her age as 20.

The letter was sent to the mother of the missing girl for examination. The father left the scene of the murder soon after making his statement to the police.

A number of letters, which the police expect will throw light on the case, were found in the room where the body was discovered, one written in English addressed to the missing

Chinaman who had occupied the room but which was unsigned, warned him that if he did not stop paying attention to "Elsie Sigel" he would meet a terrible fate. The other letters were written by a girl who signed herself "Elsie." According to the paper, the missives were written in terms of derision.

A silver sponged bracelet, which were the initials "E. G. S." were found in a dresser in the room. Some text books, a speller and a geography, owned by the missing Chinaman were found to contain rude sketches of the name "Elsie," such as a person learning to write might make.

A plain envelope, addressed to Miss Elizabeth Sigel, No. 29 Wadsworth avenue, New York city, but empty, was also found in the room.

A man who described himself as Joseph K. Lang, but who is a Chinaman, called at the Eighth avenue house quite unexpectedly during the night. He said he had called to see his cousin, who proved to be the missing Chinaman who occupied the room in which the trunk was found.

Lang said his cousin came from Philadelphia about five months ago.

Lang said he saw his cousin, Elsie Sigel and her father and mother at a performance at the Chinese Theatre three weeks ago.

Mrs. Paul Sigel, at 1:30 o'clock, this morning, when shown the jewelry found in the trunk containing the body of the murdered girl in a Chinese rooming house in Eighth avenue, identified it as that worn by her daughter, Elsie.

A woman settlement worker in the meantime had identified the undershirt worn by the girl.

Late last night three Chinamen were arrested as material witnesses. They gave the names of Yee Kim, manager of Sun Leong's restaurant; Geng Wing, salesmen for a Chop Suey supply house and Chin Sun, a cook, who lived in the rear restaurant.

The man most wanted, however, is the former occupant of the room where the body was found, evidently an English-speaking celestial, who either knew Elsie Sigel or knew some one who knew her. And judging from the letters this individual is Liang Liao, known among his English friends as William H. Liao.

Shortly after midnight Mrs. Florence M. Todd, one of the resident workers in the Chinatown and Bowery settlement, who is a friend of the Sigel family, called at the morgue and after viewing the body, identified some of the underclothing as that worn by Elsie Sigel.

Most Lowell people work every day in some strained, unnatural position, pending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Lowell can prove it.

Peter Carpenter, living at 7 Rockdale avenue, Lowell, Mass., says: "My work necessitates a great deal of heavy lifting and this together with a fall I received a short time ago affected my kidneys. My back became very lame and ached for days at a time. I used everything I thought might bring me relief, but to no avail. As my kidneys were not doing their work in a proper manner I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and purchased a box from Ellingson & Co.'s drug store. They soon banished the backache and I have had no trouble from that source since. My kidneys have also been greatly strengthened and I feel better in every way."

WILL TAKE PLACE ON SOUTH COMMON MONDAY FORENOON

Next Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Supt. Charles A. Whittier of the park department will be on the South Common to begin the sale of lots for the Fourth of July. The prices of lots will be the same as last year, $7 and $10 according to their size and location.

A CONSUMPTIVE STOWED HIMSELF AWAY IN AN AUTOMOBILE

CLEVELAND, June 19.—Believing that his life would be saved if he reached California, Thomas Newman, a consumptive, 20 years old, snuffed himself away in an automobile, being shipped to San Francisco from his home in the mountains of Colorado, and prepared to make the long trip across country. An inspector from the automobile factory found the young man in the machine and thus the consumptive's plans were frustrated.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The regular meeting of the Cleveland Board of Education was held last night, there being a large attendance of members and considerable business transacted during the evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing terms:

President—George Penruett; Vice-president, Adelard Lenihan; Secretary, Henry Massi; assistant secretary, Harry Laramore; treasurer, Otto Farber; assistant treasurer, Frank Murphy; committee of inquiry, George Penruett, Adelard Lenihan, Alphonse Landry, Frank Quigley, Lazarus Diamond; trustees, Joseph A. N. Christie, Edgar Landry, Harry Laramore; sergeants-at-arms, Philip Barry, junior, Lazarus Diamond. The installation of these officers will take place at the first assembly in July.

YOUR DUTY TO THE DOCTOR

Have you thought about it? When you consider a physician, you know very well what his duty is toward his patient. He must bring to bear all his knowledge and training to diagnose the case and prescribe the proper remedy. But have you given your duty to the doctor? Many people never think of this. When they have a prescription to be filled, they take it to the "handiest" drug store, without thinking that there is a difference between drug stores in their ability to put up the medicine right. The doctor is looking for results. We specialize in doctor's prescriptions.

IF IT DISAPPEARS, IT'S ECZEMA

How To Tell Whether a Skin Affection is An Inherited Blood Disease Or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to Fails & Burkinshaw's, Carter & Sherburne's, or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents worth of postum. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days, it may be set down as having been eczema; this is the way postum acts in the worst case of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blisters, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, bather's and other forms of itch, sebaceous scalp, and all surface skin afflictions.

Those who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, can secure by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion over-night and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

THEATRE VOYONS

There's a big difference between a cool draught space beside an open window, and a perfectly ventilated room, and the Theatre Voyons when it was constructed was provided with the very best ventilation apparatus. This original apparatus has been reinforced by a powerful electric fan which completely changes the air in the theatre once every minute. This is without any draught or unpleasant buzzing. The comfortable seats, each commanding a perfect view of the screen, together with the tasteful decoration, make the house the cosiest and most comfortable in this section. The programs, too, are the best, for quality has been the aim of the management at all times.

STAR THEATRE

The last opportunity to see Blanche Ring, the renowned vaudeville star, and the Dutch dancing and singing scene from "Pif, Paf, Pouf" on the campanaphone at the Star theatre will be tonight as next week vaudeville and talking pictures will be the attraction at the theatre.

Miss Marion Allen, a winsome soubrette, will be seen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The talking picture to be presented will be one of the best ever seen at the theatre. Latest motion pictures, choice illustrated songs, a selection by the singing orchestra of six voices and the overture by the four piece orchestra constitutes the big show. Motion pictures are changed Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 11 is the biggest and best show in Town and the admission of five cents includes a seat.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Academy opened its summer season most auspiciously last evening with a big amateur performance in connection with a grand program of four reels of absolutely new moving pictures, two illustrated songs and travelleries. The amateurs gave a fine show and they will be a feature each Friday evening during the summer, though new faces will be seen at each performance. Today a continuous show will be given beginning at 2 o'clock and continuing without intermission or delay until 10:30 o'clock. The pictures shown at the summer show are all absolutely new and are shown immediately after their release by the film manufacturers, the films of the leading companies, Pathé, Frères, Edison, Kalem and the Biograph being used. The theatre is supplied with facilities for cooling and ventilating the theatre, and it is comfortable, however hot the day is outside. The price of admission is five cents, and that includes a good seat, while there are reserved seats at five cents extra.

CHURCH PICNICS

TWO OF THEM LEFT LOWELL TODAY

The members of the Gorham Street M. E. church are enjoying an outing at Milligan's grove this afternoon. The gormetmakers left the church at two o'clock and upon arriving at the picnic grounds enjoyed a fine program of sports.

The pupils of the Centralville Methodist Episcopal church Sunday school are enjoying an outing at Nahasset Grove today. Special cars left Merrimack square for the grounds this morning and upon arriving at the grounds an exciting baseball game was held and that was followed by other sports, dinner and a general good time. The return trip will be made during the early evening.

DRINKING CANAL WATER.

We had supposed that the mill operatives long ago had learned the danger of drinking canal water. It should not be available for drinking purposes in the mills; but to prevent its use there should always be a supply of city water within easy reach of the operatives. It is undoubtedly charged with typhoid germs.

THE WRIGHT BROTHERS.

The Wright Brothers, American inventors of aeroplanes, are at last receiving tokens of real appreciation from their countrymen. If they were assisted by the government in developing their inventions as was Count Zeppelin, the German inventor, they could undoubtedly attain much greater success.

BUNKER HILL DAY ACCIDENTS.

It is reported that one hundred people were injured in Boston during the celebration of Bunker Hill day, mostly by powder explosions. That is an extraordinary number for the 17th of June which is not supposed to be a circumstance to the Fourth of July. We had supposed that the people were adopting a more sane method of celebrating all such holidays, but it would appear that if the people of Boston were less noisy than usual they were equally as successful in piling up the number of accidents.

PROFESSION OF ANARCHY A FELONY.

The state of Washington has adopted a criminal code, making the profession of anarchy a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any period not exceeding ten years.

Anarchy is defined as a doctrine that organized government should be overthrown by force of violence or the assassination of the executive head or any of the executive officials of government or by any unlawful means. The organs that have been advocating this doctrine will have to cease doing business in the state of Washington if they wish to avoid imprisonment. This puts the state in the right attitude towards anarchy. Treason is punishable by death, but it is not a whit worse than is anarchy. We have had an influx of anarchists from other lands and there are various states in which they are numerically strong, New Jersey being among the number.

This new law adopted by the state of Washington, or one somewhat similar, should be in force in every state of this republic in order to prevent the influx of these dangerous characters who are opposed to all forms of organized government and plot in secret to carry out their nefarious ends.

So many rulers have been assassinated by anarchists that it is but right that every government should fortify itself against their conspiracies.

ANTI-CIGARETTE PLEDGE.

Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan set a good example last week when he had 165 boys take the pledge against the use of cigarettes. That is the best way to suppress the cigarette habit. These boys who have taken the pledge will act as missionaries among their companions in putting down the use of cigarettes. They will be instructed in the danger of using cigarettes, the injurious effects upon body and mind and they will convey to their young friends this instruction. In that way a great deal of good will be done among the rising generation. We hope the good example set by Rev. Fr. Sullivan will spread and that there will be a great anti-cigarette army throughout the country. It would mean a great deal to the next generation.

Rear Admiral Schroeder has done a wise thing in recommending that the use of cigarettes be forbidden in the navy. Secretary Meyer has the matter under consideration and will probably report favorably upon the recommendation. The use of tobacco in other forms is not forbidden, it is only the cigarette that is tabooed. It has been customary to keep cigarettes for sale at the stores on board the naval vessels. By offering them for sale the naval authorities thus encouraged the use of cigarettes and are indirectly responsible for the evil consequences to the sailors. It is time they dropped the practice.

THE LITTLETON AUTO ACCIDENT.

That was a deplorable accident in which Joseph E. Reed of Lynn was killed by an accident to his automobile in Littleton, Mass. He was riding in a powerful machine and going at the rate of sixty miles an hour on a country road. It is plain to everybody while an automobile is going at such high speed that the least turn of the steering wheel to one side or the other may cause the machine to run off the road or to crash into some obstruction. The best drivers occasionally may have moments of absent mindedness in which the slightest slip may result in a fatal accident. It is utter foolishness for any man to risk his life in an automobile going at the rate of sixty miles an hour. No matter how experienced the chauffeur may be, the occupants of the machine are not sure of their lives for a minute. If a machine were running upon steel rails, like an express train, there would even then be considerable risk at that high rate of speed, but upon a country road with turns and bends and inclinations of every description, it is madness to turn a machine at the rate of sixty miles an hour.

The speed limit set by law seems to be ignored by the chauffeurs once they strike the country roads. That explains why there are so many bad accidents, and it may explain perhaps why Mr. Reed is dead today and his wife seriously injured. Only sympathy can be felt for the victims of the accident, but in spite of this it must be admitted that they, themselves, were to blame for allowing their machine to be run at such a high rate of speed.

SEEN AND HEARD

Here's one on a travelling man (a commercial traveler) living in Lowell. He was in a New Hampshire town and home was his destination. The train was his transportation. The train just as it was pulling out of the depot. He arrived just in time to grab the tail end of the last car. It was a Pullman and when he entered the Pullman conductor asked him for his ticket. He said he didn't have any Pullman ticket, that he was riding on a mileage.

"I was a bit tired and came near missing the train," said the Lowell man.

"Funny that you should be tardy," said the conductor. "This train is two hours late."

THE SIGNAL

I do not care to signal Mars. I have no wish to know what men are doing on the stars. That yonder faintly glows across the court from where I sit. There is a lady fair, whose fingers over the keyboard fit, and I would signal there.

Let others send their signals out across the gulf of space; I daily watch for trifles about, a smile upon her face; the court between us two must be full eighty feet across, and always near her side I see her ever wistful boss.

I do not care at all to know how men on Mars may dwell, but, oh, I wish that I might show a signal she could spell. A signal that she might be got to see and understand—Stay! Am I dreaming? I am not! She has just waxed her hand.

Getting rid of undesirable callers is as hard as taking care of politically undesirable citizens. A professional

DENIS MURPHY, IS APPLETON ST

OR

H. & A. Allan, 110 State St., Boston

man who used to live in this city and who regarded his time as valuable devised an effective plan for handling indiscreet and persistent conversationalists. He had on his desk a small alarm clock. When a visitor of unpredictable propensities was announced this man would pick up his clock, set the alarm three or four minutes ahead and resolve his caller. Then went by and then the clock did its duty. The big man started as he heard the sound consulted his watch and then rose with a hasty apology. "I'm mighty sorry we won't be able to discuss that subject longer," he would say to the caller, "but I have an important engagement at this hour and must keep it."

A Lowell man is telling a good story about his three-year-old daughter. You know that musical classic Chopsticks, of course," said he. "Well, my wife was playing in the other day and my little girl was listening intently. She had heard the piece before, but soon after her mother stopped playing the little one asked with childlike simplicity: "Mamie, won't you play that Lamb Chop again?"

John Edward Chilberg, president of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, is credited with wider acquaintance upon the Pacific coast from Cape Barrow in the Arctic to Valparaiso, Chile, than any other man, for his activities have carried him into most of the mining camps of Alaska, all the principal cities of the Pacific coast states, Mexico, the Central American republics and South America. It was his intimate familiarity with the ports of the Pacific coast, as well as his achievements in business and in the developments of the northwest, that placed him at the head of the Seattle exposition, which represents an expenditure of ten million dollars and is now running full blast, says Hannibal's Magazine.

The Seattle fire of 1889 wiped out a shipping business which young Chilberg had taken over from his father and left him several thousand dollars in debt. He went to work harder than ever, this time in trade between Puget Sound and Central and South America. In this business he laid the foundations for a comfortable fortune. When gold was discovered in Alaska, Mr. Chilberg disposed of his South American interests and joined the Argonauts. He established a line of freight boats on the Yukon river, and in Seattle, when the Nome excitement broke forth, organized the first stampede into the new camp. He took twenty-five hundred men down the Yukon to the shores of Bering sea in the winter of 1898-99, and when the fire of 1897 destroyed the city he was instrumental in getting the fire department to come to the rescue.

KILLED A MAN

Woonsocket Youth Says
He Was Insulted

WOONSOCKET, June 19.—Samuel Cressie, 19, shot and killed "Big John" Larose, aged 52, at 9 o'clock last night on Stiles street because the latter, a Woonsocket, last named being former year 1909, had, he claimed, insulted him.

Cressie, who lives in Millville, Mass., said he did not drink yesterday yesterday, the air being clear and cool and was said to have been drinking with a strong wind, which requires careful playing with the wooden clubs.

DR. ROLLER WON

SEATTLE, Wash., June 19.—Dr. B. Roller, the Seattle wrestler, last night defeated Big Yussif, or Ed. Mangan, commonly known as the second Turkish Turk, in two straight falls at the Coliseum arena. The time of the first fall was 12.57 and the second 27.35. Roller used a toe hold and a half Nelson in securing the first fall and an arm lock in the second.

INCREASE IN SURPLUS CARS

CHICAGO, June 19.—The bi-monthly statement of car surpluses and shortages compiled by the American Railway Association shows a total of 27,529 cars, an increase of 3,669 surplus cars since the last report. Box cars increased 5,661 and coal and gondolas 2,100 but these increases were offset in part by decreases in surplus flat and miscellaneous cars.

BOARD OF HEALTH

HOW TYPHOID FEVER IS SPREAD BY DRINKING CANAL WATER IN THE MILLS.

Says Canal Water is Menace to Public Health

Believing that canal water is a menace to public health the board of health at a meeting held yesterday afternoon voted to ask the co-operation of the Lowell mill agents in preventing the drinking by mill operatives of canal water. The following letter signed by the board, Dr. Simpson and Agent Bates, has been sent to the mills:

Dear Sirs:

It has repeatedly come to the notice of the board of health when in vestigating cases of typhoid fever among mill operatives that there are two sources of water supply in many of the mills. One of these, the city water, sometimes furnished to the various rooms in buckets, sometimes by faucet, is intended for drinking. The other, an independent supply, we understand, comes from the canals or river, and is intended only for washing purposes.

We believe that the latter is frequently the cause of trouble, not only from typhoid fever, but various other enteric disturbances. With the end in view of limiting the amount of sickness in our city by removing as far as possible all disease-producing agencies, we would like to have it so arranged that the second source of water supply cannot be used by operatives for drinking purposes.

We send this letter to you with the request that you will kindly communicate with this board at your earliest convenience and let us know to what extent you are willing to voluntarily co-operate with us in this matter. We shall also be glad to learn your personal views upon the question.

As bearing upon this question it may be of interest to you to know that a recent and severe epidemic of typhoid in Manchester, N. H., was promptly checked by shutting off the canal water entirely.

A hearing was granted Reward on his petition for a stable in Winter street, and pending an investigation, the petition was denied.

John Flynn was given an extension of time to make alterations at 204 Market street.

There were complaints relative to tenements in Lakewood Avenue and Third street. The complaints were thrown out on the grounds that the tenements were not insanitary.

The recent creation of certain rates of assessment to give certain classes of property 30 days in which to pay up was voted down.

Martin suggested that one or more inspectors be appointed temporarily to see that another could be made available to inspect the departmental work present in preparation for the fall election.

At the suggestion of the committee on appropriations when we approached the commissioners for an increase in their appropriation, when turned down, the commissioners turned them over to the finance board.

After which they voted a lot of money for a foundation for the fire department, said Tom Martin.

The board agreed not to drop an inspection before September, if at all.

AGAINST CIGARETTES Police Board Sends Copy of Law to Dealers

Copies of the recent legislation relating to the sale of cigarettes have been received at the office of the board of police in this city and are being distributed to the dealers in cigarettes throughout the state. The new law also makes it punishable for a person to give a cigarette to a person under 18 years of age.

The law reads as follows:

Chapter 346 of the Acts of 1909. An act to require dealers in cigarettes to post certain notices.

Section 1. Section three of chapter two hundred and thirteen of the revenue laws is hereby amended by adding the following at the end thereof:

A copy of this section printed in letters not less than five inches high, and so set out in a conspicuous place where it can easily be read, in every shop or place where cigarettes are sold at retail. Any person unlawfully removing the said copy while cigarettes are still sold on the premises where it is posted shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars.

Section 2. Section one of the said section, printed as above, together with the same, shall be published by the State Board of Health and shall be delivered without charge to the cities and towns applying for them.

Section 3. This act shall take effect sixty days after its passage.

(Approved May 3, 1909.)

MURDER CASE

Remarkable Verdict Rendered by Jury at Amsterdam, N. Y.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., June 19.—Frank Denatto, a wealthy local Italian saloonkeeper who had been on trial at Potsdam for the past four weeks for being the accessory before the fact in the murder of William McLaughlin of Cranes Hollow in July, 1907, was today acquitted by a jury which handed him a remarkable verdict.

The written document reads:

"While in our minds and opinion we, as men, regard the defendant as guilty yet after considering our paths as jurors and carefully considering the evidence as placed before us we cannot find sufficient evidence to convict and therefore render a verdict of not guilty."

The jury was roundly scolded by Judge Spencer who declared that they were unfit for such services and ordered the clerk to remove their names from future jury lists. When the jury reached the street they were hissed and hooted by a large throng.

McLaughlin, the murdered man, was an eccentric and wealthy farmer who lived alone and had frequently intended Denatto by lending him money. It was contended that it was for the purpose of obtaining unswerved evidence of indebtedness that Denatto sent five Indians to McLaughlin's home with instructions to kill him.

TOWN THREATENED

Disastrous Fire Broke Out in Warren, R. I.

BARRINGTON, R. I., June 19.—The town of Warren was threatened and the summer colony at this place thrown into excitement this noon when the bell on "Shore Acres," the estate of Dr. Thomas Connelly at Mathewson's Bend, was turned to the ground causing a loss of $10,000. The bells were all taken off in safety to members of the summer colony who formed a high-speed team which threatened a conflagration at one time. The barn was one of the last in the state and contained an unusual amount of timber.

MUST PAY TAXES

PARIS, June 19.—The budget of 1909 was introduced in the chamber of deputies yesterday by Francis M. Mallet-Guyon and shows a deficit of $31 million. Nine million dollars of this is charged to the budget of 1910.

The minister responsible for the sum, containing 12,000,000 francs, or a new tax of a cent a litre on the petrolium used in automobiles, has been submitted to the chamber of deputies, and a decree will be issued to implement the new tax in connection with the maintenance of property.

The minister explained that it was planned to raise this tax to the amount demanded by the government, that being the way to the minister of finance, the most important project for tax collection which the government hoped to secure.

Colonel Strickland, seated in the shadow of one of the big people's boxes in the White House last night, saw the president ride away in his automobile for an outing in the country. Evidently he did not recognize Mr. Taft. When the president was out of sight, Strickland walked to the entrance of the executive mansion and asked to see the president. Collier, chief of the White House staff, interviewed him.

"I don't intend to damage my business," he said. "I come here to see the president. I might talk over my business with him. I am here for a purpose." That is all I mean to say."

When searched at the police station, the loaded revolver was found in his pocket.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The president had a narrow escape yesterday from an unpleasant interview with an assassin, named with a revolver. Colonel James Strickland of Roosevelt, Ark., was the assailant. RACING CASE

Has Been Put Over Until September

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 19.—The court of appeals put off until the September term the case of the commonwealth vs. the racing commission, involving the manner of playing wagers at the Latonia track. This is understood to leave the case unchanged, the Latonia track having the right to continue bookmaking.

ELECTION AND OTHER MATTERS OF INTEREST

The election of officers of the Matthews school was held June 24th, and although it gives some of the details of the election, it is not in a person under sixteen years of age, shall be permitted to give more than fifty dollars. A copy of this section printed in letters not less than five inches high, and shall be posted conspicuously in the shop or other place of sale, shall be subject to a fine of $100. If the principal of the school is present, he may add a condition of affixing which the board will have difficulty in remedying.

"We are sorry to report," the committee states, "that we find the report of Dr. Abbott true. We do not mean that children attend school reciting poems, but that they were so intoxicated that they could not sleep at night. The restlessness rests with the parents and we must do all we can to remedy conditions in the homes."

Another principal said that a boy 12 years old, who was backward in his studies, frequently drank beer. In the same school were two other boys who would frequently fall asleep. When questioned they said they drank beer or whiskey for breakfast instead of coffee.

In another classroom a boy and his sister would frequently fall asleep at their desks. The children, who were six and eight years old, respectively, were given beer three times a day by their parents.

Reports showed like conditions in their schools. Dr. Abbott has suggested that meetings of parents who were to meet for the conditions of Abbott complained of, but the parents, who often gave their children beer with their meals,

It is Alleged That Children Were Intoxicated

NEW YORK, June 19.—Investigation by the könnte (N. J.) board of education into the charges of School Inspector Abbott, that children attend public schools under the influence of liquor, has now led a condition of affixing which the board will have difficulty in remedying.

Second Day of the Events at Crown Point, Ind.

CROWN POINT, Ind., June 19.—The driver forged ahead. He attained a lead that lasted until the race began with a repetition of yesterday's performance.

Following is the list of contestants:

1—Miller, Standard Dayton, 43.1.
2—Bourne, Knox, 43.1.
3—Seymour, Apperson, 53.0.
4—Strang, Buick, 32.1.
5—Engelbeck, Standard-Dayton, 43.1.
6—Florida, Locomobile, 109.
7—Denison, Knox, 46.6.
8—Lytle, Apperson, 53.0.
9—Robertson, Locomobile, 40.0.
10—Chevrolet, Buick, 32.1.
11—Hearne, Fiat, 62.0.
12—Burnett, Buick, 32.4.

The distance today was 39.66 miles, or 17 times around the course. Elapsed time will decide the race.

As the start of yesterday's race was delayed by the non-arrival of auto trucks to take the national guardmen to their stations around the course, a particular effort was made today to avoid a repetition of this occurrence. The trucks were along the earliest vehicles to arrive and squads destined for the more distant points on the parkway were en route by 6 o'clock. Crowds poured over the course in the early morning to various vantage points.

Robertson, with his Indianapolis, was the first of the drivers to appear in front of the stand at the regular parts. Robertson finished second in the Indianapolis trophy race yesterday, but was confident of carrying off the Coble cup.

"I did not time my race properly yesterday," said Robertson, "as I waited too long before letting out. A few seconds more will have won me the lead in the lead as the rounds show I was making the best time on the last three or four laps. I intend to cut out faster pace today from the start."

The Fiat, the only foreign car entered and the only one driven by an amateur, attracted much attention. By 7 o'clock all the cars were at the pits. Burnett, Chevrolet, and Strang, the three Buick drivers who failed to finish yesterday, expressed the hope of better luck with their three bigger entries today.

The race brought out seven drivers who did not contest for the Indiana trophy yesterday. They were Miller, Bourne, Seymour, Engelbeck, Denison, Lytle and Hennic.

The Indiana trophy, won by Matson in a Chalmers-Detroit, yesterday and the Coble cup were on exhibition in front of the official grand stand.

Just before the start of the big race Joe Matson of the Chalmers-Detroit, winner of yesterday's race, was presented the trophy.

"We simply say to the people of Canada," he said, "if you refuse to allow logs or pulp wood to be sent to the United States if the 7 amendment suggested by the committee on finance to the wood pulp paragraph of the tariff bill shall be agreed to, as soon as the Senate has for the time disposed of the income tax question at the beginning of today's session, Senator Aldrich presented the committee amendment on pulp."

The House bill provides a graduated scale of duty for the various kinds of pulp when imported, to encourage making an export charge but免es free of duty mechanically ginned pulp coming from a country in which no such charge is made. The Senate substitute accepts the House provisions but adds a proviso intended to be a response to the recently announced resolution of Canada not to permit the further importation of logs from that country to the evident intention being to compel the manufacturers of such logs in the rest of the original Senator Aldrich briefly expressed the opinion that the retaliatory resolutions proposed by the amendment would unfavorably affect the United States by causing a higher price on paper.

Mr. Aldrich declared that the provision was only intended to apply to paper made in Canada, to paper exported from Canada to the United States in case that Country should forbid the exportation of logs and wood pulp.

"We simply say to the people of Canada," he said, "if you refuse to allow logs or pulp wood to be sent to the United States and still would send in products of them here you will have to pay a little higher duty."

The cars were sent away on the exact schedule time, 8 o'clock. Miller was first over the tape. The first five drivers each had screens affixed to their steering posts to protect their worth from three to four cents a face from flying gravel thrown up by pound cars.

An amendment offered by Mr. Daniel Finkhauser, in charge of the guardsmen of the Illinois militia, kept the speed in front of the grand stand clear, and Starter Wagner was able to send the big machines away on their long journey without a hitch. At 8.12 the last car, a Buick, driven by Burnett, sped on its way.

An exciting moment marked the finish of the sixth lap. Denison, the leader, stopped for a moment and the men in the Standard-Dayton pit worked urgently to get the car away as quickly as possible. Chevalier, who was 1.19 behind, likewise stopped at the Buick pit, but when Denison stopped, he went out immediately behind him, took the record of elapsed time showing his lead to be 2.12. The timing process gained for him over three minutes.

The elapsed time, sixth lap of the three leaders was:

Chevrolet, 2.27.06; Denison, 2.29.45; Bourne, 2.31.32.

Burnett, who scolded a certain competitor for the cup, broke his connecting rod and was compelled to leave the race.

Strang on his fifth lap and one hour more behind the others, limped into the Buick repair pit and deliberately set about repairing his engine. He could scarcely hope to catch up in time to make an effort to catch his race. But he did, and his race was over.

SEN. ALDRICH

Presents Amendment on Wood Pulp

WASHINGTON, June 19.—This group will be invited to meet the news made by Chalmers looking to the protection of the exportation of her logs to the United States if the amendment suggested by the committee on finance to the wood pulp paragraph of the tariff bill shall be agreed to.

As soon as the Senate has for the time disposed of the income tax question at the beginning of today's session, Senator Aldrich presented the committee amendment on pulp.

The House bill provides a graduated scale of duty for the various kinds of pulp when imported, to encourage making an export charge but免es free of duty mechanically ginned pulp coming from a country in which no such charge is made.

Robertson, with his Indianapolis, was the first of the drivers to appear in front of the stand at the regular parts.

He attained a lead that lasted until the race began with a repetition of yesterday's performance.

Following is the list of contestants:

1—Miller, Standard Dayton, 43.1.
2—Bourne, Knox, 43.1.
3—Seymour, Apperson, 53.0.
4—Strang, Buick, 32.1.
5—Engelbeck, Standard-Dayton, 43.1.

LATEST MARITAL TROUBLES

Were Aired in the Police Court Today

The greater part of this morning's session of the police court was devoted to the ironing out of a marital difficulty. It was the case of John R. Bonney, charged with failing to provide proper support for his wife, Lizzie.

The complainant testified that she married her husband a year ago last February and that he left her last September and since the latter time had not contributed towards her support. She said that subsequent to her husband leaving her she was taken ill and underwent an operation and for the past six months has been in poor health.

On cross examination she admitted that she had money in the bank, that she had been in the habit of drinking, but had not drunk anything for a year.

The husband said that as a result of a conversation with her last September she called him vile names and ordered him to leave her and that if he returned she would have him arrested.

He claimed that he knew nothing about her being ill or that she underwent an operation at a hospital.

MATRIMONIAL

The following report of the wedding of Walter Noyes Sherwell of this city will be of interest to many Lowell people. The item is from the Biddeford, (Me.) Daily Journal of June 16:

The wedding of Walter Noyes Sherwell and Miss Lillie Hayes Blanchard, that took place in the First Universalist church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, was one of the city's most elaborate and fashionable, and the largest company of Biddeford's representative people who filled the large auditorium attested the popularity of the young bride, who was born and reared in this city, and the esteem for the bridegroom, who has many warm friends.

The church was most artistically decorated with hydrangeas and buttercups. The entire altar was banked with the showy blooms, the pews serving as a most effective background. The ushers were Dr. Edward Brundage of Tufts Dental school, Clarence A. Parker of Auburn, formerly of Lowell; Charles L. Little of Portland, and Ernest T. Walker of Biddeford.

The maid of honor was Miss Nellie H. Ballou of Boston, a cousin of the bride. She was gowned in white lace over blue silk. The bride was gowned in duchess lace over white satin in train.

The service, which was performed by Rev. Herbert Frank Moulton, was strictly after the Universalist form, simple but beautifully impressive, the double ring service being used.

The bridal party after the ceremony went to the Montreal house, Old Orchard, which has been the bride's summer home for many years, and there the gifts were seen. These were both costly and beautiful, and included silver of rare design, cut glass, chinaware and many other articles of value.

Mrs. Sherwell is the only child of Mrs. and Mrs. Frank W. Blanchard of this city.

Mr. Blanchard is a cousin of the bride. She was gowned in white lace over blue silk. The bride was gowned in duchess lace over white satin in train.

The recent Day Nursery May Festival, held in Associate hall, netted that worthy charity $1674.88, and at an expense of only $22.75. This is considered an excellent showing, and one reflecting much credit upon those managing the affair, for it is too often said that it costs a dollar to earn a dollar for charity.

The total receipts were $1607.62 which came in from the following sources: Sale of tickets, $502.00; check, $22.75; directors' table, $351.42; candy, $261.75; grab, $180; refreshments, $200; lemonade, $176; Sam Walter Foss table, $55; Women's Reception club table, $77; whist tournament, $60.57.

The receipts of the directors' table included $90 from the Ladies of Charity of St. John's hospital, $25 of which was contributed through the efforts of Mrs. E. D. Kerwin.

Of course many people contributed money, material and time in order to keep the expenses of the fair down, and the directors feel that they are deeply in debt to a large number of people, only a few of whom can be thanked through the columns of the press. Talent was freely given for the unusual clever entertainments, music dancing teachers arranged special programs without charge, piano accompanists, violinists, pianists, furnished and no bill solicited, houses were opened for preliminary entertainments, and so on through a long list.

But among those whom the directors wish especially to thank are Rev. Fr. Blunt, Mrs. A. K. Chadwick, Mrs. George Miller, Miss L. Blanche Pease, Miss Josephine M. Orkington, Robert H. Taylor, Miss Edith Andrews, Miss Ethel Church, Miss Inez Batchelder, John H. Harrington, Anna Partridge, Henry G. Corey, Charles P. Conard, Donald Jackson, James Evans, G. E. Bancroft, the D. L. Page Co., D. J. Ring, A. D. Prince, Miss Grace Cumming, Miss Mary Russell, Miss Mildred Tinney, Mrs. O'Malley, Frank R. Host, Mr. Flanders of Melrose, Dr. John H. Lambert of Lowell, Mr. Charles P. Littlefield and Mr. Kirk Walker, both of Tynsboro. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Channing Whitaker. The church was very tastefully decorated with mountain laurel, daisies, ferns and hemlocks. A reception followed immediately after the ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lambert.

LAMBERT-WHITAKER

Dr. Fred DeForest Lambert and Miss Catherine Cravath Whitaker were married yesterday afternoon in the Evangelical church in Tynsboro, by Rev. Nicholas T. Whitaker of Lowell and Rev. Bertram C. Henry of Tynsboro. The bride was attended by her sisters, Misses Grace and Harriet Bancroft Whitaker, and by her niece, Miss Hazel Bancroft Whitaker, as flower girl. Mr. Henry M. Shreve of Lexington was best man. The ring bearers were Master John Rogers Flather and Master Frederick Flather, both of Lowell. The ushers were Dr. Walter H. Flanders of Melrose, Dr. John H. Lambert of Lowell, Mr. Charles P. Littlefield and Mr. Kirk Walker, both of Tynsboro. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Channing Whitaker. The church was very tastefully decorated with mountain laurel, daisies, ferns and hemlocks. A reception followed immediately after the ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lambert.

CASSIDY-SHIELDS

Mr. James H. Cassidy and Miss Gertrude Shields were married Wednesday evening at St. Peter's church by Rev. Mr. Burns. Mr. John McAdoo was best man, and the bridegroom was Miss Katherine Daly. The bride and bridegroom were handsomely gowned in white. After a somewhat informal wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 37 Chapel street.

CONNORS-PAGE

Mr. Michael Connors and Miss Pauline Page, both of this city, were married Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the Immigrant Congregational church by the Rev. John P. Hartigan, O. M. I. The bride was beaded in a gown of white silk and her sister, Miss Margaret Pauline Page, who acted as bridesmaid, was charmingly dressed in white. The two men for Mr. Connors will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 37 Chapel street.

CITY HALL

COMMITTEE MEETINGS FOR MONDAY NIGHT

The committee on appropriations will meet next Monday night and will discuss the preparation for the 100th anniversary of St. Peter's church, to be held on June 22, 1881. The third Sunday after Pentecost, the event which is to be observed tomorrow, took place.

Finally, the chairman of the committee on the centenary of the city church, the Rev. Mr. Hartigan, will be present.

SILVER JUBILEE CLOSING EXERCISES

Were Held in a Number of the Schools Today

REV. JOHN J. SHAW

To be Observed at St. Michael's Tomorrow

Basement of Church Dedicated and First Services Held 25 Years Ago—Annual Exhibit by Pupils of St. Michael's School Tomorrow

With impressive religious services but without any outward ostentation the 25th anniversary of the dedication of St. Michael's church, in Centralville, will be observed tomorrow, studying for the priesthood, while a large number of the daughters of the parish have gone into the different religious orders. The parish has several large and flourishing societies and sodalities for young and old of both sexes and is in every way in a flourishing and hopeful condition. First communion will be given to a large class of children on next Sunday morning and those in preparation will make a three-days' retreat, beginning on Thursday evening.

St. Michael's School Exhibit

In connection with the anniversary exercises at St. Michael's tomorrow the parishioners are invited to attend the annual exhibit of the handwork of the pupils of St. Michael's school which will be held in the school hall and which will be open to the public from 3 to 11 in the forenoon and 1 to 3 in the afternoon. There will be exhibits of sewing, embroidery, drawing, sketching and specimens of expertise in the Palmer system of penmanship in which the pupils of St. Michael's have been particularly successful. The school season closed yesterday and the graduation exercises will be held next Wednesday evening in the basement of the church and an excellent program has been arranged. One week from tomorrow the Dominican sisters of St. Michael's will make their annual retreat at the convent and members of the order from Lynn and Waverly will go into retreat with them.

Triduum Closed

The triduum in honor of the feast of the Sacred Heart held at St. Peter's church closed last evening with a large attendance. The services were conducted by Rev. W. Geo. Mullin, director of the League of the Sacred Heart, and the sermon was preached by Rev. Fr. Bridges, S. J. of Boston college.

YACHT RACES

MARLBOROUGH, June 19.—The first of the long distance yacht races to be held in New England waters will begin at sunset tonight when the Corinthian Yacht club will start a score or more of small yachts on the eighth annual race to the Isle of Shoals and return a distance of 75 miles. These events in previous years have proved excellent training for amateur yachtsmen as several occasions the weather has been very thick and excellent racing has been able to be secured in spite of the bad weather.

As usual the boats will be sent with officials and yachtsmen from the London and New York clubs.

Early in the day here today for the race were the yachts and moderate-sized sailboats for the yachts for the race come in many years.

BOSTON'S LEAH THOMAS

BOSTON, June 19.—Leah Thomas, 18, of 100 Marlboro street, who was to compete in the Boston's Cup regatta, was to be married Saturday evening at the church of St. John the Baptist, 10 Marlboro street, to Rev. Mr. William J. Tracy, pastor of St. John's church.

Rev. Mr. William J. Tracy, the first pastor, remained at St. Michael's until 1878, after the departure of the man who was to be the 10th pastor, Rev. Mr. Tracy, who was to be the 11th pastor. The church has had a succession of 10 rectors, and the present pastor is the 12th.

ASHBURTON TREATY

VAN BUREN, Me., June 19.—The International arbitration which in behalf of the United States and Canada will interpret the Alaskan treaty of 1842 as it applies to logging operations in the timber areas of the St. John river, began its second session on Friday morning. Mr. Charles J. Shaw became pastor of St. Michael's church, whose great success in the rivers and lakes of the north another interpretation of the affairs is now well along. The decision was then

Three of the grammar schools held their graduating exercises today, the Highland and Bartholomew schools at 9:30 this morning and the Moody school at 2:30 this afternoon. All of the exercises were well attended and the carefully prepared programs were enjoyed.

HIGHLAND SCHOOL

The commencement exercises given at the Highland school at 9:30 this morning were attended by an audience that well filled all the class rooms. The program was an extended one and was thoroughly enjoyed. It was as follows:

The wind is blowing from off the shore,

And our sail has felt its force;

For our bark bounds back o'er the crested waves.

As a wild and restive horse,

Our sharp prow cleaves the billows,

And breaks them into spray,

And they brightly gleam in the glad sunlight,

As we speed upon our way.

Lords of the waves we are,

Kings of the seething foam,

Warriors bold, from the Norland cold,

Far o'er the sea we rear.

We've left our wives and our sweet hearts fair,

On the green encircled strand,

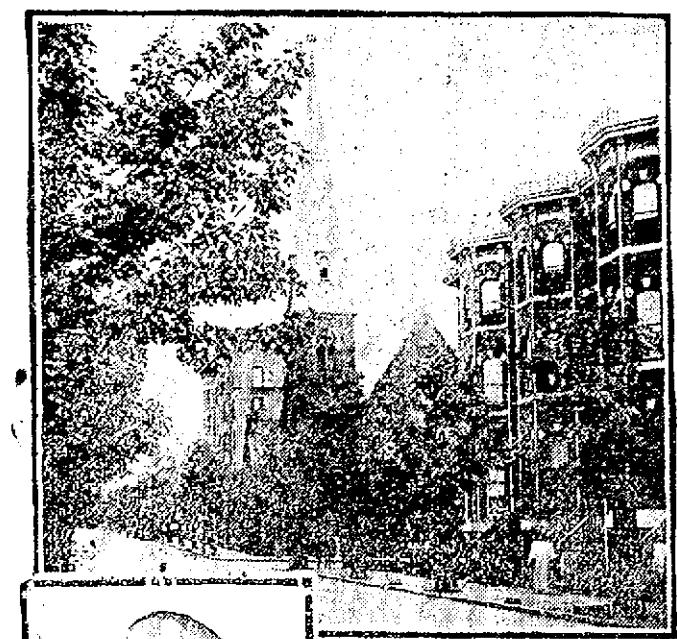

To entreat the gods to watch o'er our lives,

As a wild and restive horse,

Our sharp prow cleaves the billows,

PRESIDENT'S PASTOR, CHAPLAIN OF THE SENATE, AND HIS CHURCH

REV. G. B. PIERCE

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Rev. George B. Pierce, pastor of All Souls' Unitarian church in this city, has been appointed chaplain of the senate, succeeding the late Edward Everett Hale. Dr. Pierce is a native of Rhode Island and was ordained to the ministry in 1881. From 1893 to 1896 he preached in Pomona, Cal., and later went to Rhine, N. Y., where he held pastorate until called to All Souls' church here in 1901. He is the author of a book, "The Soul of the Bible." President Taft attends Dr. Pierce's church.

CHEMIST—A CONSUMPTIVE STOWED HIMSELF AWAY IN AN AUTOMOBILE

CLEVELAND, O., June 19.—Believing that his life would be saved if he reached California, Thomas Noland, consumptive, 29 years old, stowed himself away in an automobile, being shipped to San Francisco from here yesterday and prepared to make the long trip across country. An inspector from the automobile factory found the young man in the machine and thus the consumptive's plans were frustrated.

Noland was an employee of the factory from which the machines were being shipped and when he heard that the cars were to be sent to Frisco he asked permission to accompany them, but his employers refused to grant his request, and he decided to go without their permission. Noland had stored away enough food to last him for ten days and padded the floor of the car so that he might sleep comfortably.

YOUR DUTY TO THE DOCTOR HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT IT?

When you employ a physician, you know very well what his duty is toward his patient. He must bring to bear all his knowledge and training to diagnose the case and prescribe the correct remedy. But how about you when you are ill? When you have a prescription to be filled, they take it to the "cheapest" drug store, without thinking that there is a difference between drug stores in their ability to put up the medicine just right. The doctor is looking for results. We specialize in doctor's prescriptions.

IF IT DISAPPEARS, IT'S ECZEMA

How To Tell Whether a Skin Affection is An Inherited Blood Disease Or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to Failes & Burkhams, Carter & Sherburne, or any good druggist who handles pure drugs, and obtain 50 cents worth of possum. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days, it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way possum acts in the worst case of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blisters, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itch, scaly scalp, and all surface skin afflictions.

Those who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, can secure by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion over-night and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

THEATRE VOYONS

There's a big difference between a cool, drafty spot beside an open window, and a perfectly ventilated room, and the Theatre Voyons when it was constructed was provided with the very best ventilation apparatus. This original apparatus has been reinforced by a powerful electric fan which completely changes the air in the theatre once every minute. This is without a doubt the best system of ventilation ever devised. Beginning on said South street at the northeastern corner of the premises and extending for a distance of one hundred and twenty-four and 56-100 sq. ft. more or less, there is a large opening in the floor of the stage, leading to a space under the floor, which is covered with a heavy carpet. This opening is surrounded by a series of pipes which lead to the fan, which is located in the basement of the building. The air is drawn through these pipes and passes through the fan, which is driven by an electric motor. The air is then distributed throughout the entire building by means of a series of pipes which are distributed throughout the entire building.

STAR THEATRE

The last opportunity to see Blanche Ring, the renowned vaudeville star, and the Dutch dancing and singing scene from "Puff, Puff, Pow!" on the canvas alone at the Star theatre will be tonight as next week vaudeville and talking pictures will be the attraction at the theatre.

Miss Marion Allen, a winsome soubrette, will be seen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The talking picture to be presented will be one of the best ever seen at the theatre. Latest motion pictures, choice illustrated songs, a selection by the singing orchestra of six voices and the overture by the four piece orchestra constitutes the big show. Motion pictures are changed Monday, Wednesday and Friday. It is "the biggest and best show in Lowell," and the admission of five cents includes a seat.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Academy opened its summer season most auspiciously last evening with a big amateur performance in connection with a grand program of four reels of absolutely new moving pictures, two illustrated songs and travellettes. The amateurs gave a fine show and they will be a feature each Friday evening during the summer, though new faces will be seen at each performance. Today a continuous show will be given beginning at 2 o'clock and continuing without intermission or delay until 10:30 o'clock. The pictures shown at the summer show are all absolutely new and are shown immediately after their release by the film manufacturers, the films of the leading companies, Pathé Frères, Edison, Kalem and the Biograph being used. The theatre is supplied with facilities for cooling and ventilating the theatre, and it is comfortable, however hot the day is outside. The price of admission is five cents, and that includes a good seat, while there are reserved seats at five cents extra.

LAKELINE THEATRE

The season at Lakeline theatre will open next Monday, June 21st, with a dramatic stock company headed by the popular comedian, James Kennedy. "Sheridan Keene" will be played as the opening bill next week is a comedy drama full of novel situations, bright lines, and hearty laughs. It was one of Mr. Kennedy's greatest successes in past years and has served as a successful starring vehicle from coast to coast. In comedy roles Mr. Kennedy has won his reputation. He is original and naturally funny and his natural acting never fails to please his audience. Not only is Mr. Kennedy a popular star, but the management has endeavored to surround him with a capable supporting company as well as adequate scenic settings for each play.

The usual popular priced matinées will be given daily commencing Tuesday of each week.

Reserved seats for each performance will be on sale at Carter & Sherburne's drug store, one week in advance of the performance.

REED'S COURT

SLIGHT FIRE CAUSED ALARM THIS FORENOON

An alarm from boy 22, shortly after eleven o'clock this morning, summoned a portion of the fire department to a small blaze in a house in Reed's court, off Lakeview avenue. The fire was caused by a spark from a chimney falling on the roof, but it was extinguished before much damage was done.

WOMEN'S AUTO TRIP

CHICAGO, June 19.—Mrs. J. R. Ramsey, driving a four cylinder touring car, arrived here yesterday from New York city and will continue her trip to San Francisco on Monday. She is accompanied by three female friends. "Our journey is entirely for pleasure and sightseeing," said Miss Ramsey. "We left New York city a week ago Wednesday and have been taking the road. We expect to reach the coast about the first of August. We have been driving about a hundred miles a day."

Chinaman Dead With Appeals Will be Heard in Cambridge Head on Bible

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 19.—Dressed in American clothes and lying on his ironing table with the English bible as a pillow, Chin Dite Mon, a 42-year-old Chinaman, shot himself through the heart at his laundry shop in Randall square today. The first discovery of the suicide was made by a patrolman of the second precinct when he passed the laundry today and upon looking through the street window saw the Chinaman's body. The revolver was still clasped tightly in the right hand. Mon left his wife in China fourteen years ago and has always lived in Randall square. The police could find no motive for the suicide today.

DRINKING CANAL WATER.

We had supposed that the mill operatives long ago had learned the danger of drinking canal water. It should not be available for drinking purposes in the mills; but to prevent its use there should always be a supply of city water within easy reach of the operatives. It is undoubtedly charged with typhoid germs.

THE WRIGHT BROTHERS.

The Wright Brothers, American inventors of aeroplanes, are at last receiving tokens of real appreciation from their countrymen. If they were assisted by the government in developing their inventions as was Count Zeppelin, the German inventor, they could undoubtedly attain much greater success.

BUNKER HILL DAY ACCIDENTS.

It is reported that one hundred people were injured in Boston during the celebration of Bunker Hill day, mostly by powder explosions. That is an extraordinary number for the 17th of June which is not supposed to be a circumstance to the Fourth of July. We had supposed that the people were adopting a more sane method of celebrating all such holidays, but it would appear that if the people of Boston were less noisy than usual they were equally as successful in piling up the number of accidents.

PROFESSION OF ANARCHY A FELONY.

The state of Washington has adopted a criminal code, making the profession of anarchy a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any period not exceeding ten years.

Anarchy is defined as a doctrine that organized government should be overthrown by force of violence or the assassination of the executive head or any of the executive officials of government or by any unlawful means. The organs that have been advocating this doctrine will have to cease doing business in the state of Washington if they wish to avoid imprisonment. This puts the state in the right attitude towards anarchy. Treason is punishable by death, but it is not a whit worse than anarchy. We have had an influx of anarchists from other lands and there are various states in which they are numerically strong. New Jersey being among the number.

This new law adopted by the state of Washington, or one somewhat similar, should be in force in every state of this republic in order to prevent the influx of these dangerous characters who are opposed to all forms of organized government and plot in secret to carry out their nefarious ends.

So many rulers have been assassinated by anarchists that it is but right that every government should fortify itself against their conspiracies.

ANTI-CIGARETTE PLEDGE.

Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan set a good example last week when he had 165 boys take the pledge against the use of cigarettes. That is the best way to suppress the cigarette habit. These boys who have taken the pledge will act as missionaries among their companions in putting down the use of cigarettes. They will be instructed in the danger of using cigarettes, the injurious effects upon body and mind and they will convey to their young friends this instruction. In that way a great deal of good will be done among the rising generation. We hope the good example set by Rev. Fr. Sullivan will spread and that there will be a great anti-cigarette army throughout the country. It would mean a great deal to the next generation.

Rear Admiral Schroeder has done a wise thing in recommending that the use of cigarettes be forbidden in the navy. Secretary Meyer has the matter under consideration and will probably report favorably upon the recommendation. The use of tobacco in other forms is not forbidden, it is only the cigarette that is tabooed. It has been customary to keep cigarettes for sale at the stores on board the naval vessels. By offering them for sale the naval authorities thus encouraged the use of cigarettes and are indirectly responsible for the evil consequences to the sailors. It is time they dropped the practice.

THE LITTLETON AUTO ACCIDENT.

That was a deplorable accident in which Joseph B. Breed of Lynn was killed by an accident to his automobile in Littleton, Mass. He was riding in a powerful machine and going at the rate of sixty miles an hour on a country road. It is plain to everybody while an automobile is going at such high speed that the least turn of the steering wheel to one side or the other may cause the machine to run off the road or else crash into some obstruction. The best drivers occasionally may have moments of absent mindedness in which the slightest slip may result in a fatal accident. It is utter foolishness for any man to risk his life in an automobile going at the rate of sixty miles an hour. No matter how experienced the chauffeur may be, the occupants of the machine are not sure of their lives for a minute. If a machine were turning up a steep bank like an express train, there would even then be considerable risk of that high rate of speed, but upon a country road with turns and bends and inequalities of every description, it is madness to run a machine at the rate of sixty miles an hour.

The speed limit set by law seems to be ignored by the chauffeurs who strike the country roads. That explains why there are so many bad accidents, and it may explain perhaps why Mr. Breed is dead today and his wife seriously injured. Only sympathy can be felt for the victims of the accident, but in spite of this it must be admitted that they, themselves, were to blame for allowing their machine to be run at such a high rate of speed.

SEEN AND HEARD

Here's one on a travelling man (a commercial traveler) living in Lowell. He was in a New Hampshire town and Boston was his destination. The train that was to bring him here caught just as it was pulling out of the depot. He arrived just in time to grab the tail end of the last car. It was a Pullman and when he entered the Pullman conductor asked him for his ticket. He said he didn't have any Pullman ticket, that he was riding on a mileage.

"I was a bit tardy and came near missing the train," said the Lowell man.

"Funny that you should be tardy and the conductor, 'This train is two hours late.'

THE SIGNAL

I do not care to signal Mars, I have no wish to know what men are doing on the stars that wonder faintly glow; Across the court from where I sit There is a lady fair, Whose fingers over the keyboard fit, And I would signal there.

Let others send their signals out Across the guits of space; I daily watch her risk about, A smile upon her face; The court between us two must be Full eighty feet across, And always near her side I see Her ever watchful loss.

I do not care at all to know How men on Mars may dwell, But, oh, I wish that I might show A signal she could spell, A signal that she might be got To see and understand— Stay! Am I dreaming? I am not! She has just waved her hand.

flat-bottomed river boats. Later in Seattle, he became associated with the Scandinavian-American bank, and with associates erected the Alaska building, the tallest structure in the northwest (fifteen stories), the New Washington hotel of fourteen stories and several other notable Seattle buildings.

For two years Mr. Chilberg has devoted almost all of his time to the exposition, without remuneration, and has been the moving spirit behind the development of the enterprise. Among other enterprises organized by Mr. Chilberg are a life insurance company and a fire and marine insurance company at Fairbanks, Alaska, and at other ports, and he has acquired heavy mining interests in the north. He is forty-three years old and is a native of Iowa.

Dr. William Gell of Doylestown, Pa., has recently arrived in London after an exhibition in China in the course of which he traced the great wall for 1800 miles from the east coast of Shensi to Kalgan, on the northern border of Tibet. He was amazed to find indications that the westernization of China is spreading to the remotest parts of that country, especially in rifle training.

The acceptance by the Yale corporation of a gift of $25,000 from Mrs. J. W. Folsom of Minneapolis, to be used for a gateway at the west of our Hall in memory of her son, clearly forecasts the early demolition of Almond Hall. The gateway will connect Folsom Hall with the new building on the Almond site and the new structure will undoubtedly be a belfry. On the site of Almond Hall there is ample room for a dormitory to lodge 115 students, and there is no other site for an additional dormitory on either campus.

That the $250,000 given to the Johns Hopkins University by the Rockefeller General Board of Education in New York is the beginning of definite steps toward taking the university to Homewood, and is to be the nucleus of a fund of $1,000,000 to be raised as a condition of the gift, is the statement made by R. Brent Keyser, president of the board of trustees of the institution.

The postponed contest picnic will take place next Tuesday afternoon, June 22, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Fletcher, West Chelmsford. Members of the auxiliary will take the 133 car from the square. After adjournment, ice cream and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Dennett, Miss Rhoda Dean and Miss Anna-nelle Savage.

Reception and Ball of the Graduates
Mayor Brown Will Not Decide Today

The concert, reception and ball of the graduating class of the Howe high school was held last night in the town hall. There were about 500 present, and the untiring work of the members of the class to make the affair the success which it was, were amply rewarded by the large attendance.

Between 8 and 9 o'clock a concert program was given by Hibbard's orchestra, during which time the graduates held a reception.

The grand march was led by Earl W. Costello and Miss Elsie A. Casey, president and vice-president of the class, followed by Lieut. Harold W. Robie of the Mitchell Boys' school and Miss Edna Robinson. There were about 50 couples in line and several pretty figures were executed by the marchers. Dancing continued until nearly midnight. These in charge of the event were the members of the graduating class as follows: President, Earl W. Costello; vice-president, Elsie A. Casey; secretary, Edna M. Robinson; treasurer, Gladys M. Holden; Myrtle E. King; Lillian Balneforth; Addie E. Shad; Stella Morris and Thomas H. Bateson.

A very pretty dancing party was held in Thomas Talbot Memorial hall last night under the auspices of the Glendale campers. Music for dancing was furnished by the Rosedale orchestra. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of the following: General manager, Martin H. Maguire; assistant, Walter H. Flaherty; floor director, Wm. J. Morris; assistant, Frank W. Leighson; aids, John A. Ryan, Frank McCarl, George F. Smith, Michael Maloney, William Cahill, Charles Moore; treasurer, Fred M. Flaherty.

SURVIVORS OF KEARSARGE

WALTHAM, June 19.—The remaining survivors of the crew which manned the battleship Kearsarge, which vanquished the confederate ship Alabama off the coast of France on June 19, 1864, gathered in this city to-day to celebrate the 45th anniversary of that history-making encounter. Of the men who comprised the crew of the Kearsarge there are now 39 living members. The veterans assembled here from many parts of the country accompanied by their wives and children.

BANGOR, Me., June 19.—The latest of the large water transportation companies to abandon the use of the sailing vessel in preference to the steamship as a means of conveyance is the Coastwise Transportation company and to that end the company has contracted for the construction of two 8000 ton steamships each to cost about $500,000. According to the latest statistics forty-seven sailing vessels have disappeared from the Atlantic coastwise fleet during the past year.

The coastwise company operates what is known as the Crowley fleet of sailing vessels, many of the craft bearing that name. The new steamships will be used in the coal carrying trade between Philadelphia and New England ports and will be ready in about a year.

In order to discharge the coal from the new and larger ships the Boston & Maine railroad will expend about $10,000 for new machinery.

SCENE OF SENSATIONAL GOULD TRIAL: TWO PRINCIPALS AND THEIR ATTORNEYS

NEW YORK, June 19.—In the suit of Katherine Clemmons Gould against Howard Gould for separation and $250,000 a year alimony, Justice Dowling ruled that Mr. Gould must prove that his wife's indulgences in drink were such as to make life with her unbearable, in order to reconcile his abandonment of her. A score or more witnesses, many of them former servants at Castle Gould and on the Gould yacht, were placed on the stand and testified that at various times Mrs. Gould had conducted herself in such a manner as to leave little doubt that she was intoxicated. Some testified that on those occasions she was very belligerent and used profanity not only toward them, but her husband as well.

One former servant related a sensational episode which he said occurred in the Fifth avenue home of a wealthy friend of Mrs. Gould. He said he entered the house at the call of the hostess, found her having a bleeding arm, a woman guest nursing a black eye, the other guests all in tears and Mrs. Gould in the cellar, disheveled, angry and incoherent. When accusations of the court-martial tactics were made in the courtroom by De Lancey Nicoll, counsel for Gould, Clarence J. Shearn, Mrs. Gould's attorney, resented the remark and the two lawyers almost came to blows.

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE FOLLOWING MERCHANTS OF LOWELL, and MEMBERS of the MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION, wish to state their position clearly on the MATTER OF CLOSING the business houses of this city afternoons during the summer months.

BY A VOTE of the association, it was decided to close our stores on TUESDAY, from July 6th to Sept. 14th, instead of THURSDAY as formerly, for this reason: that the fact of THURSDAY BEING ESTABLISHED AS BARGAIN DAY, we did not think it JUSTICE TO THE PEOPLE OF LOWELL to confine them to a half a day in which to do their buying—the HOUSEGIRLS of our city SHOULD BE CONSIDERED—as we know them to be good buyers and therefore entitled to consideration.

The members of our association believe in BUILDING UP rather than tearing down. We have always tried to show a public spirit where the welfare of our clerks or customers is concerned and WE CORDIALLY INVITE ALL MERCHANTS TO JOIN WITH US IN UPBUILDING THE BUSINESS OF LOWELL, and working in harmony for the continuous closing of ALL THE STORES one afternoon each week, during the Summer months.

LAID AT REST

Funeral of D. A. Sullivan
Largely Attended

The remains of the late Denis A. Sullivan, formerly proprietor of the Lowell Daily News, who died in Brooklyn, N. Y., a few days ago, were consigned to their final resting place in the Catholic cemetery, this city, this morning, followed to the grave by many sorrowing relatives and friends, including a number of out-of-town friends and many of Lowell's best known citizens. The funeral took place from the home of his sister, Mrs. John D. Murphy, 88 West Sixth street, at 8:30 o'clock and the cortège proceeded to St. Michael's church where a solemn high mass of repose was sung by Rev. Eugene A. Carney, Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I., of the Immaculate Conception church was presiding at the service, while assisting at the service were many friends of the deceased from different parts of the state. The choir under the direction of Thomas P. Boulier rendered the Gregorian chant, Miss Carolyn White presiding at the organ. The solo was rendered by Mr. Boulier. The casket was borne by Messrs. Robert J. Thomas, Nathan D. Pratt, John H. Drury, Martin J. Courtney, Lawrence Cummings and John R. Martin. At the close of the church services the funeral procession repaired to the Catholic cemetery where at the graveside Rev. Fr. Carney read the committal service. Out of respect for the wishes of the family there were no floral tributes, but the large gathering at the grave testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The interment was under the direction of James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FORTY HOURSDEVOTION OPENED AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

The Devotion of the Forty Hours opened at the Sacred Heart church, yesterday morning with solemn high mass. The altar was lighted with hundreds of candles and beautifully adorned with cut flowers and stately tropical plants.

Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, O. M. I., celebrated the mass, assisted by Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. John P. Flynn, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. The mass sung was the Gregorian, and at the close of the mass there was a procession of the Blessed Sacrament, during which the sanctuary choir sang the "Pange Lingua" and hymns in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Mrs. Adelaida A. Muldoon presided at the organ, and efficiently directed the choir.

The Forty Hours will come to a close on Sunday at the 10:30 o'clock mass when the solemnity of the feast of the Sacred Heart, which is the feast of this church, will be observed. The mass will be sung by Rev. Edward J. Fox, O. M. I., one of the recently ordained priests of the parish, and is his first solemn high mass. At the Sunday evening service there will be a sermon appropriate to the feast of the day.

The primary scholars of the Sacred Heart school will hold their commencement exercises in the school hall on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. The parents and friends of the pupils are cordially invited.

At the Hathaway theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the beautiful cantata, "Esther" will be given under the direction of Mrs. Adelaida A. Muldoon. On the second evening the grammar school pupils will also have their commencement exercises.

KILLED A MAN

Woonsocket Youth Says
He Was Insulted

WOONSOCKET, June 18.—Carmel Creut, 19, shot and killed Big John Larose, aged 52, at 6 o'clock last night on Scales street because the latter, a year ago, had, he claimed, insulted him.

Cresuf, who lives in Milville, Mass., and is a laborer, did not work yesterday and was said to have been drunk.

A woman who saw the shooting screamed for help, but the assassin was allowed to walk away and went up Arnold and Fountain streets, followed by a crowd of boys. He then went down Ascension street to Main street and tried to hide in a yard, then down Main street to the rear of the Home building, where he was captured. Cresuf freely admitted the crime in talking with a reporter.

218 Central Street.

The matches in the two rounds developed many surprises and several overthrows yet the players who started in the forenoon play today included some of the best in the state. Among the number was the veteran, Jos. G. Thorpe of the County club and runner up in the national championship in 1896. Mr. Thorpe was matched with Carl Messer of Bradburn, one of the younger contingent. The other three matches were: T. R. Eddle for Woburn, present title holder, vs. C. Crooker, Jr., of Alpine; Percy Gilbert of Bradburn vs. Hoyt Allston and A. H. Shaw, Country club, vs. Anderson Woodland, last named being a former state champion.

Weather conditions for the morning round were practically the same as yesterday, the air being clear and cool with a strong wind, which requires careful playing with the wooden clubs.

DR. ROLLER WON

SEATTLE, Wash., June 19.—Dr. B. E. Roller, the Seattle wrestler, last night defeated Big Yusoff, or Big Man, commonly known as the second Terrible Turk, in two straight falls at the exposition arena. The time of the first fall was 15.57 and the second 27.53. Roller used a toe hold and a half Nelson in securing the first fall and an arm lock in the second.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

CHICAGO, June 19.—The bi-monthly statement of car surpluses and shortages compiled by the American Railway association shows a total of 175,599 cars, an increase of 3563 surplus cars since the last report. Box cars increased 5661 and end and gondolas 2160 but these increases were offset in part by decreases in surplus flat and miscellaneous cars.

BOARD OF HEALTH

HOW TYPHOID FEVER IS SPREAD BY DRINKING CANAL WATER IN THE MILLS.

Says Canal Water is Menace to Public Health

Believing that canal water is a menace to public health the board of health at a meeting held yesterday afternoon voted to ask the co-operation of the Lowell mill agents in preventing the drinking by mill operatives of canal water. The following letter signed by the board, Dr. Simpson and Agent Bates, has been sent to the mill agents:

Dear Sirs:—It has repeatedly come to the notice of the board of health when in vestigating cases of typhoid fever among mill operatives that there are two sources of water supply in many of the mills. One of these, the city water, sometimes furnished to the various rooms in buckets, sometimes by faucets, is intended for drinking. The other, an independent supply, we understand comes from the canals or rivers, and is intended only for washing purposes.

We believe that the latter is frequently the cause of trouble, not only from typhoid fever, but various other enteric disturbances. With the end in view of limiting the amount of sickness in our city by removing as far as possible all disease producing agencies, we would like to have it so arranged that the second source of water supply cannot be used by operatives for drinking purposes.

We send this letter to you with the request that you will kindly communicate with this board at your earliest convenience and let us know to what extent you are willing to voluntarily co-operate with us in this matter. We shall also be glad to learn your personal views upon the question.

As bearing upon this question it may be of interest to you to know that a recent quite severe epidemic of typhoid in Manchester, N. H., was apparently checked by shutting off the canal water entirely.

A hearing was granted Bernard O'Neill on his petition for a stable on Winter street, and pending an investigation, the petition was filed.

John Flynn was given an extension of time to make alterations at 50 Market street.

There were complaints relative to lumbermen in Lakeview avenue and Third street. The complaints were thrown out on the grounds that the lumbermen were not nuisances.

On recommendation of Agent Bates the board voted to give certain residents of Wicinity 20 days in which to remove vaults.

Dr. Martin suggested that one of the respects be dropped temporarily so that another effort be made to obtain more money for the department as the present appropriation cannot hold out at the present rate of expenditure.

"At the meeting of the committee on appropriations when we appeared to get an extra amount, the committee made our statement, then turned us down after which they voted a lot of money for automobiles for the fire department and Dr. Martin."

The board agreed not to drop an application before September, if at all.
